

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) is attempting to weaken and circumvent Indiana's Telephone Privacy law by imposing the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. Our rights to privacy and freedom from commercial interruption by telephone was hard won in action championed by Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter. PLEASE do not permit this blatant commercial intrusion on our private home life. THANK YOU